Welcome

Hiiiiiiiiiii Friend...

I AM JANE ELIZABETH, Psychic Medium Astrologer, Ordained Minister and Author of 'Messages Of The Stars'. I am a quadruple Scorpio, Wood Dragon with a Libra Moon. I am a mother of four and a grandmother of six.

Thank Youuuu for purchasing and reading my 2024 Messages Of The Stars!!!

Being born a quadruple Scorpio, I've endured some pretty strong slaps across the face; all to get me to REMEMBER WHO I AM and walk my path.

This day and everyday I humbly chant, 'Please show me, please show me, please show me'; so, I may effortlessly align with WHAT IS and walk the path; therefore, living Heaven on Earth!!!

I work with an astrological house system that begins with Sagittarius and completes with Scorpio.

Back in the early 90's while working on an astrological chart, I called out in prayer and said, "If I am to work with astrology, please show me how to read the messages of the stars the way the prophets read." All of a sudden, I saw a vision of the astrological wheel spinning around and around. Then, my Jesus The Christ guide appeared, pointed at the Sagittarius ♐ symbol and said, "Begin here."

It took me many months to comfortably align with The Sagittarius House system.

The system works!!!

I cannot tell you how many times other astrologers and laypeople have asked me, 'How did you see that'???

Highly Evolved Beings converse with me through this astrological house system.

Here I am this day, twenty plus years later, putting together charts by hand and sharing the messages of the stars.

In October 2023, I began putting together the charts, calendars and astrological data for 2024. Every chance I had, I'd step into my quiet space; watching, listening and writing out the messages of the stars.

Journeying through the entire year of 2024 for the twelve astrological signs, there is a message that repeats itself for all of us to heed and align with. That message is, 'Focus on the child'. As you read the book, you'll deeply perceive the meaning of what that means for you.

Another strong message of the stars presents through Jupiter in Gemini; May 25, 2024 to June 9, 2025. LIFE aligns and enhances twins / soul mates / partners!!!

As we step into 2024, Pluto is in the tail end of Capricorn taking work, jobs, businesses, income and money through a death and transformation.

January 20, 2024 to September 1, 2024, Pluto temporarily moves into Aquarius taking groups of people, socialization and all forms of communication through a death and transformation.

September 1, 2024 to November 19, 2024, Pluto moves back into the tail end of Capricorn taking work, jobs, businesses, income and money through a final death and transformation. This may be the transit that transforms the economy.

November 19, 2024 to January 19, 2044, Pluto moves through Aquarius taking groups of people, socialization and all forms of communication through a death and transformation.

My 2024 Messages Of The Stars shares MANY messages to assist you in aligning with WHAT IS, so you may live Heaven on Earth; yet, I need to share something with you.

As I was writing the book, I realized an alchemical event occurring. The combination of words and punctuation placements awakened new cells throughout my body; transporting me to new realms allowing me to clearly SEE life from another perspective / dimension. Yes, there are life awakening spells throughout this book.

My purpose has always been and continues to be, first, to assist you in knowing thyself so you may be thyself. Secondly, to assist you in aligning with WHAT IS, so you may live Heaven on Earth!!!

With all of me, I THANK MY CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN!!!
They are my soul mates, my tribe, BEAUTIFUL reflections of me!!!

With all of me, I THANK my first born and her husband for reading through and editing this book.

May this book and the messages within assist you in aligning with WHAT IS so you may live Heaven on Earth!!!

Wishing you the best year ever!!!

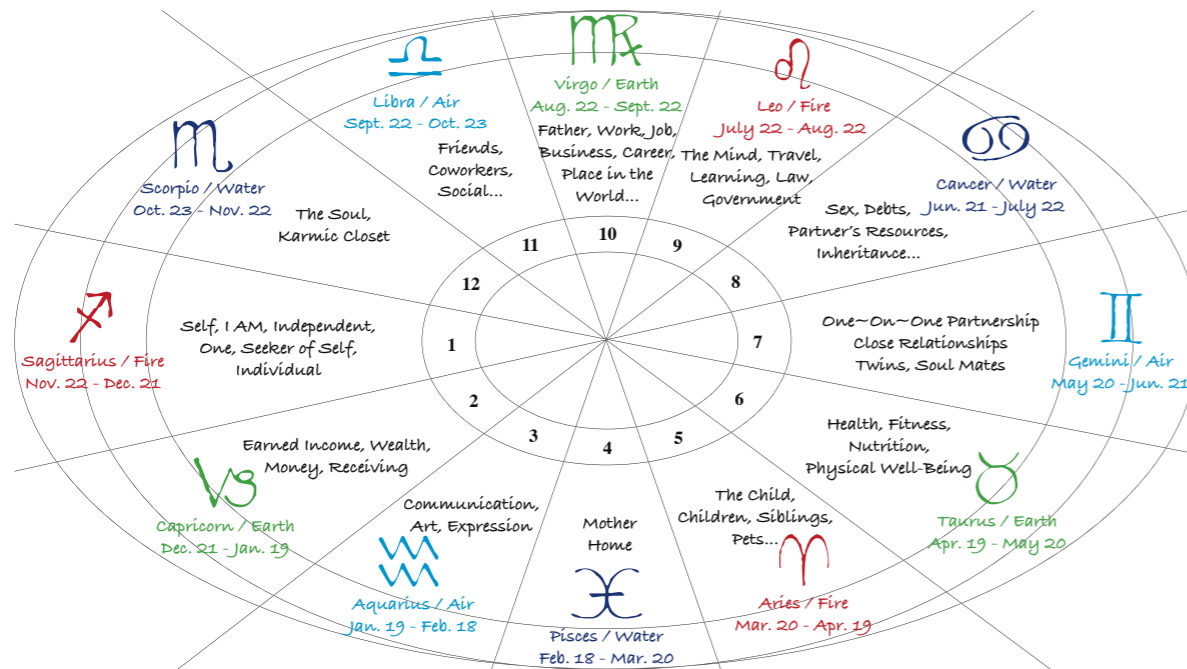

INFINITE LOVE LOVE LOVE!!!

New Moon / Waxing Moon

On the day of the New Moon, THE SUN and Moon are harmoniously aligned in the same sign / constellation, at the exact degree presenting a new beginning. Moon Mother and Father Sun embrace. This is a powerful day! This is the time to initiate those new products, projects and ideas. It's time to call meetings and discuss your thoughts / plans and ideas with others. This is the time to call that person you have been thinking about calling. This is the time to make the connection. This is that time to call the contractors, plumbers and builders. This is the time to turn in your application. This is the time to call prospective employees and interview.

For 14 days, the Moon waxes into its fullness; each day coming more into opposite alignment to the light of THE SUN. Get Ready! New people, places, things and opportunities find their way to you. YOU are magnetic! You are attractive and attracting. Go out and get your hair and nails done. Buy a new outfit, purse and shoes. This is a positive time of manifestation and revelation. Attracting a new job, meeting new people, starting new relationships, connecting with a new project or product is destined for success when the initial connection is made during a New Moon / Waxing Moon cycle.

Full Moon

The Moon is in direct opposition to THE SUN. This is a time of celebration / revelation / manifestation / and Thanks! All that has been hidden / unknown / kept secret is revealed; for, THE SUN shines its ever~so~powerful light directly into the Moon, REVELATION.

Throw your parties, events and social gatherings on the Full Moon. Invite over family and friends on the Full Moon. Go out and celebrate. This is a time of cooking, feasting, partying and celebrating with others.

Waning Moon

Now that we have had our fun and celebrated with the Full Moon, it is time to clean. The Moon continues to move forward, away from the light of THE SUN, slowly yet surely picking up and gathering for the next time. This is a time of slowing down, clearing and cleansing. It is time to pick up and put away. This is a great time to go through your closets, drawers and places of storage. This is a time to clear, cleanse and organize. This is a great time for vacations, for the energy is settling down and it will be easier to relax. Get a massage. Go to a movie. Engage in something mellow and relaxing. This is a great time to fast and cleanse the body. Eat less ...fast ...meditate ...do yoga.

Dark Moon

Twenty-four hours before the New Moon is Dark Moon. This is a time of quiet, prayer and meditation.

Go into your place of quiet and meditation...grab your note pad and red pen and write out your hopes, wishes, dreams, wants and desires. Look through old magazines and rip out the pictures that stand out to you. Gather these images, paste them on a board or just file them away in a sacred place.

Be aware of people and situations that come in during a Dark Moon, for something dark and hidden lies within. Meeting new people during a Dark Moon is sure to be a challenge, for the Moon (which represents our inner self) is dark; hidden. Attracting a new job during a Dark Moon may be a challenge, for its true role is hidden. Situations that have a strong hidden / deceptive side roam during the Dark Moon.

Honor the Dark Moon through silence, prayer, meditation.

☿ Mercury Retrograde

Mercury is the planet of communication. It rules our mind, intellect, ability to speak, reason and communicate; the way we think, converse and exchange information (talking, writing, dancing, sign language, photography, etc.). Mercury rules our means of communication and transportation (cell phones, telephones, computers, printers, scanners, copiers, airplanes, trains and automobiles). Mercury is known as the "Messenger of the Gods, for it transits closest to THE SUN absorbing its energy and messages and relaying such.

Mercury orbits THE SUN rather quickly; spending 15 to 20 days in a sign unless it retrogrades; at which time may spend up to 2 1/2 months in one sign.

Eclipses 2024

Approximately every three months, Mercury slows down, only to move into retrograde (to go back or appear to be moving backward in space or time; orbiting in a direction opposite to that of the Earth's orbit around THE SUN) for the next 20 to 25 days. These days are shaded in light red on the calendar pages.

Astrologically speaking, when a planet moves in retrograde, it goes back to a place it has been before; perhaps, to reconnect us with something we may have missed, or to reconnect us with something that needs to be reconnected with. When Mercury is in retrograde, our mind is in retrograde. It is a good idea to pull back, slow down, take your time, be extra careful and give extra close attention to EVERYTHING, especially when driving and / or operating machinery. More accidents occur at this time, and more things seem to malfunction and break down. Travel plans are usually delayed or interrupted. Everyone is in mental chaos, for people are not thinking clearly, forgetting and making mistakes therefore causing other Mercury Retrograde minds to act out in frustration and annoyance. This is NOT a good time for travel, meetings and planning, for everything is sure to change when Mercury returns direct.

Two to three weeks before Mercury officially goes into retrograde mishaps and miscommunication begins. Take note and align with the Universe. Slow down, focus and make yourself more peaceful, loving, patient, listening and understanding with others. If something breaks down at this time, WAIT until Mercury returns direct to have it repaired. Doing things during a Mercury Retrograde only means it will need to be done again. Starting a new job, entering into a new relationship, meeting new people may all be short-lived experiences.

You most definitely want to refrain from entering into any agreements or contracts at this time, for you may find yourself pulled into the 'Mercury Retrograde Vortex'; stuck and trapped for a very long time.

Mercury Retrograde is great for going back to past projects and situations; fine-tuning and cleaning up. This is a great time for prayer, relaxation, meditation; silencing the mind and writing out your thoughts. There's not a whole lot to do at this time, other than relax and let Mercury retrograde take your mind back through your past, for you may have missed something valuable. Relax and let Mercury retrograde take you back to something wonderful.

January 2024

We step into January 2024 as THE SUN highlights the sign of Capricorn... December 21, 2021 at 10:28 PM ET to January 20, 2024 at 9:08 AM ET... highlighting income, money, wealth and material possessions. This is a time to take inventory, balance and organize such. This is a time to donate and lighten your load; creating space for new income and wealth to come in. LIFE presents a gift to you; something that represents your new job / task.

The Moon wanes... December 26, 2023 at 7:33 PM ET to January 11, 2024 at 6:58 AM ET... moving out of the light of THE SUN... a time of clearing, cleansing, fasting and preparing for the next New Waxing Moon cycle.

Mercury... the planet that rules 'the mind' and communication... moved in retrograde December 13, 2023 to January 1, 2024. Mercury started out its retrograde in Capricorn, and on December 23, 2023, moved back into Sagittarius. Many may have experienced a change in income and / or work. LIFE presents and directs you to a new path; a happier path with more income.

The Moon waxes... January 11, 2024 at 6:58 AM ET to January 25, 2024 at 12:55 PM ET... into its fullness in Leo... illuminating the mind and revealing new knowledge, information, clarity and direction.

LIFE presents a gift / money / a material item that represents and points the way to our next job / task.

As the Moon rises into its fullness in Leo, we experience mental clarity and clear direction.

A new creative product / project births!!!

Throughout 2023, you may have experienced a loss of people, friends, coworkers, social groups and / or loved ones either through death or disassociation due to the transit of the Dragon's Tail in Libra.

The Dragon's Tail in Libra... July 17, 2023 to January 11, 2025... sweeps away the old / outdated / outworn people and groups... a clearing of the dinosaur mentality... clearing away the old / outdated consciousness.

The Dragon's Head in Aries... July 17, 2023 to January 11, 2025... points to and directs us to focus on a child, children, siblings and family. This is a time to spend time with a child, children, siblings and family; activating the inner child and re-experiencing play and fun. This is a time to face and deal with old childhood issues; resulting in healing the inner child; therefore experiencing true LOVE.

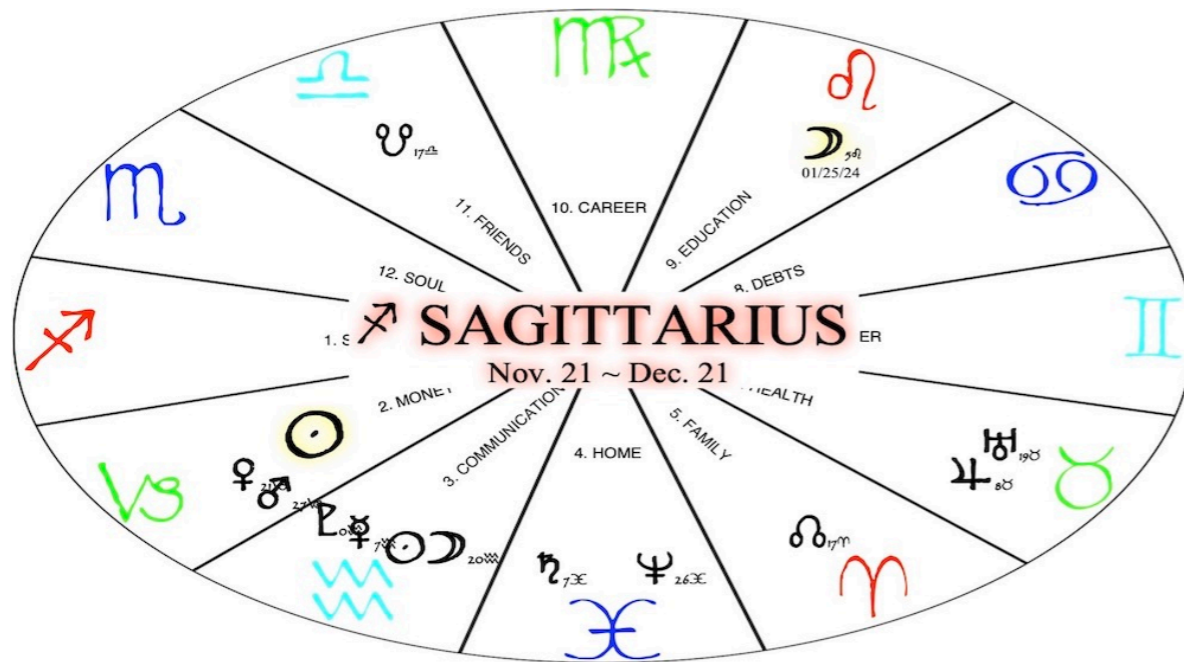

Uranus in Taurus March 6, 2019 to April 25, 2026... and... Jupiter in Taurus May 16, 2023 to May 25, 2024... greatly accentuate our health, fitness, nutrition and body. Uranus in Taurus awakens new cells. If the physical body is filled with processed foods and chemicals, it will experience great pain and illness as new cells awaken. Be mindful of what you put in and on the body. Walking (as an exercise) and sitting in a steam room opens the pores; allowing the body to sweat and detox.

We're off to a good start as LIFE presents a gift that symbolically represents our next task / new job. Many have experienced loss of a friend, coworkers, a job or of a loved one; all to create space in our lives for new people, activities and opportunities to come in. Keep your body clean, healthy and pure so NEW LIFE may effortlessly express through.

January presents a reinstatement of purpose!!!

January 2024 Sagittarius

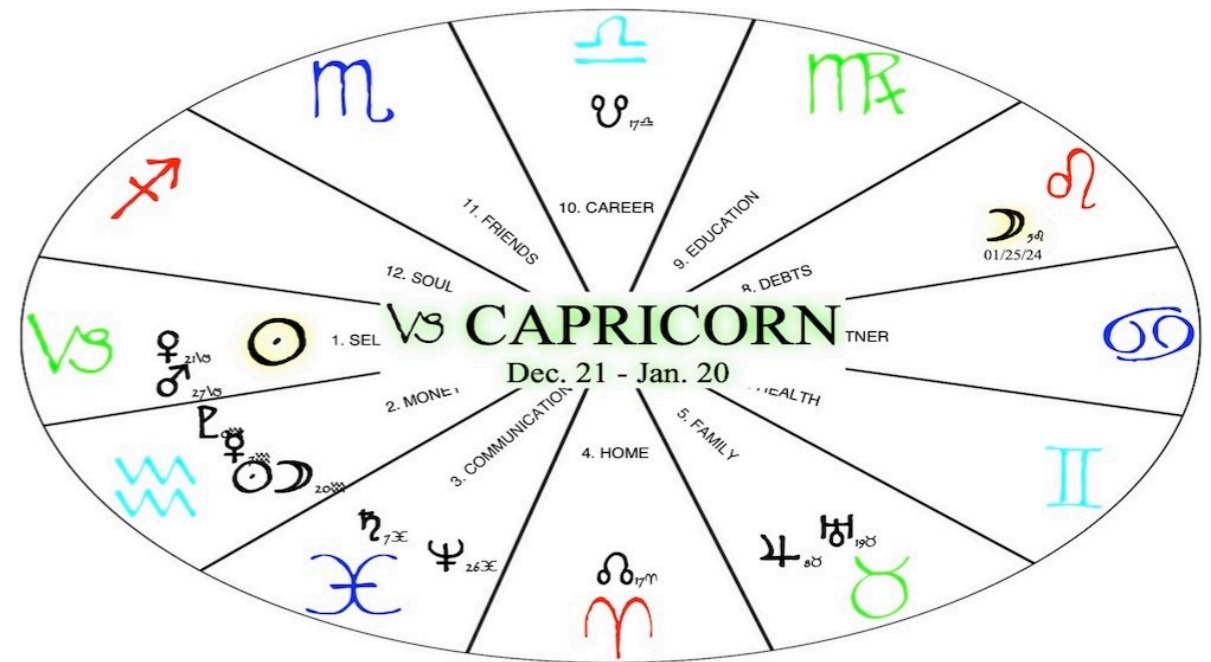

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your area of income / receiving; presenting a gift that symbolically represents your new task / job / purpose. It may be something you are to create, make, write, promote, invest in or mass produce.

In the past year, you may have experienced a loss and / or change of people, friends, coworkers and / or social activity. The Dragon's Tail removes those you are complete with; so, you may direct your time and focus into a child / children / siblings / family. As you focus on, help and assist a child / children / siblings / family, you strengthen and heal your inner child; therefore, experiencing TRUE LOVE.

Another big area of focus is your health as Jupiter and Uranus move through that area of your life. New cells (new life) awaken from within you; yet, your physical body may be filled with too much sugar, salt, food, weight, alcohol, medication or drugs. It is your job to keep your body clean, healthy and pure. Failure to do so results in great pain, sickness, illness and disease. Perfecting your health and body allows THE HIGHER POWER to effortlessly express through you; resulting in energetically and happily interacting with children and family, successfully working on and producing a new project and strengthening and beautifying your home or a new house / home.

The quieter you are, the clearer you hear and see.

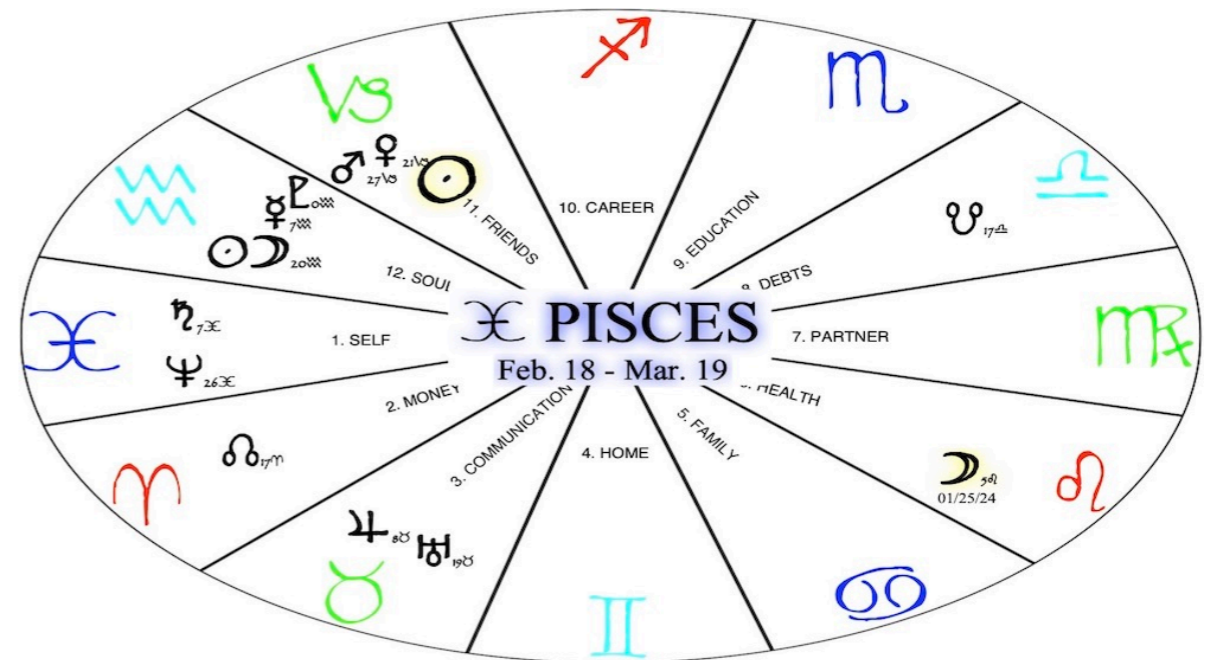

A new income-earning project presents to you; yet, it may take a year for you to fully align due to Pluto's back and forth transit from your sign, into your area of income, back into your sign, and then back into your area of income.

For, when THE SUN realigns with your birth SUN (your spirit), LIFE RESETS and all new gifts and treasures come to you. Cleanse, clear and create space for the NEW YOU.

This month's Full Moon in Leo illuminates your area of partnership. Through another person, you receive news / knowledge / information about YOU. Although, the message may be harsh, it is the mallet needed to crack the egg; therefore, allowing a new part of YOU to emerge.

The Dragon's Tail sweeps through your mind; cleansing your mind of old thoughts, definitions and beliefs. The Dragon's Head moves through your area of creative communication; EMPOWERING you to birth and materialize new creative thoughts and ideas. Goodbye old words and definitions!!! Neptune and Saturn move through your sign; taking your body through many changes and feelings. Neptune may cause you to crave inebriation; for, it is the planet of intoxication. It is your lesson and job to find the best way to uplift. Transcendental meditation is a wonderful way to uplift and rise above humanness. Saturn is ALL human; the lonely and grumpy old man who dislikes people and wants things to be a particular way. Saturn is, also, disciplined and meticulous. It is your lesson and job to find ways (other than drugs and alcohol) to rise above anger, frustration, annoyance, depression and mood swings. This may be a time for you to take a break from interacting and socializing with others; a time for you to spend time with self and with your inner child; a time of reconnecting with past creative projects and ideas.

January 2024 Aries

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your 10th Room of work / job / business / career / father / your place in the world. As you step into the new year, you may experience excitement to dive into your work / job / business. Those you work with may not be as motivated as you. However, your energy and excitement overflows onto others.

Pluto temporarily moves into your 11th Room of people / friends / social. Pluto is the planet of death; therefore, meaning you may experience someone's departure from your life.

The Dragon's Tail sweeps back and forth through your 7th Room of partnership / close relationships; also, presenting a cleansing of certain people from your life.

Certain people being cleansed from your life represents a clearing of your karmic past lives.

April 8, 2024, the Moon aligns with THE SUN in Aries creating a Total Eclipse of the Sun. This powerful eclipse represents THE BIRTH OF A NEW YOU. Before your HIGHER SELF may effortlessly birth through you, many layers upon you must be released; including people.

January 2024 Taurus

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your area of the mind / thoughts / education / learning / travel. This is a powerful time to take a trip to a cooler environment; so, you may clearly see where you belong in the world.

You are Taurus the bull; the fixed earth sign. In order to break through your thick skin, you need energy from your opposite sign, Scorpio: fixed water, ice.

Pluto has moved back and forth through your area of the mind since 2008; possibly causing your mind to jump from one thought / idea / plan to another.

Since 2023, Pluto moved into your area of career, retrograded back into your area of the mind, moved forward into your area of career, and then back into your area of the mind. And, finally on November 19, 2024 moves forward into your area of career until January 19, 2044. This is a very significant time in your life for you to see and 100% align with where you are meant to be in the world.

A brisk walk in cold weather or a cold plunge breaks through your thick skin so your Higher Self may express through; and, soon you will see and perfectly align with your work / job / business / career / place in the world.

January 2024 Gemini

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your area of intimacy / exchange / assistance / inheritance. This is a time of sharing your time and attention with an other / others. You may feel extra generous towards others, and someone expresses extra generosity towards you. This is also a time of exchanging business and investment thoughts and ideas with an other. This is, also, a time of travel; a time of clearing your mind.

Through the transit of the Dragon's Head in your area of people / friends, LIFE calls upon you to step out into the world with your playmate and experience new ventures... or, LIFE calls you out into the world to find and align with your new playmate. You are Gemini... the sign of the twins. Everything you do is done better with a partner.

Pluto temporarily moves into your area of the mind; filling your mind with bold thoughts and ideas. You'll receive a thought / idea and you'll boldly move forward on it; seeing it through to perfect fulfillment / materialization. May 2, 2024, Pluto goes into retrograde moving back into your area of assistance; reconnecting you with someone to share and exchange with; possibly a business partner or investor. For now, you may need to do things on your own. In a few months, you'll be able to share your journey with someone who may be interested in partnering and / or investing with / in you.

January 2024 Cancer

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your area of partnership / close relationships along with Pluto there. Someone in your circle of life experiences a death. This is a time of focusing on, helping, assisting, talking with and listening to an other.

As the Dragon's Head moves through the sign of Aries in your area of work / job / business / career / your place in the world, LIFE directs you to focus on, spend time with and / or work with a child, children or family member(s). There is a younger person or two who needs your assistance and guidance in finding and aligning with their place in the world.

As the planets move opposite of you, this is a very strong time of focusing on, helping and assisting others. You may need to monetarily assist someone; making sure they have the money, material items and knowledge they need. Remember, you are the assistant, giver, helpful one; and, as you unconditionally give, you more abundantly receive.

As the Dragon's Tail sweeps through your area of home, this is a time of clearing away material items that are associated with former friendships and relationships; for, as do, you create space within your heart for new people, friendships and relationships to come in. Home is where the heart is.

January 2024 Leo

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your area of health / work. You should be feeling more energized and motivated to work on and perfect your health, body and home.

Pluto has moved back and forth through your area of health / work since 2008... and, continues to move through this area of your life until November 19, 2024. Through the course of Pluto's transit, you may have experienced particular health situations that required your full attention. Pluto breaks down the imperfect; so, we may rebuild into perfection. In your case, you've needed to perfectly rebuild parts and pieces of your health and body.

As you rebuild, strengthen and perfect your health and body, you attract someone (possibly, more than one person) who needs your assistance in perfecting their health, body and individuality.

You are the sign of knowledge and information. Throughout life, everything you experience and learn is to be shared with others. The Dragon's Head moves through your area of the mind / travel / education; directing you to listen and learn. Just be sure that what you share is knowledge / truth / facts.

January 2024 Virgo

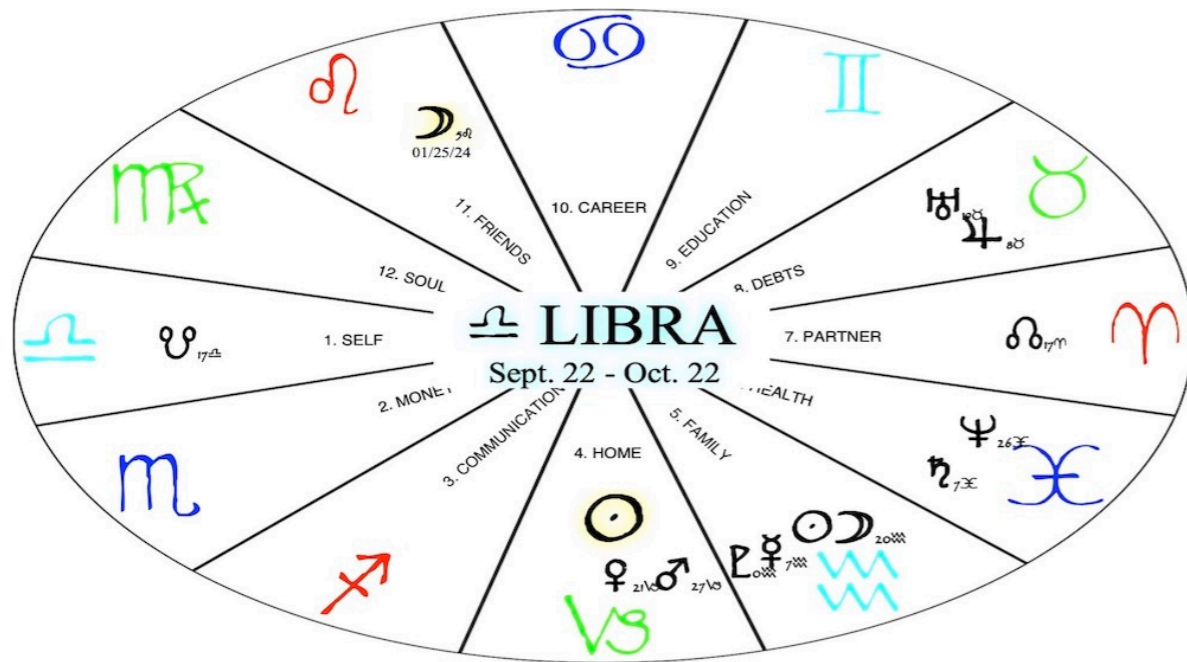

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your area of children / siblings / family / your inner child; a time of hanging out and socializing with such; a time of remembering parts and pieces of your childhood; a time of re-embracing your inner child; a time of assisting someone in finding, aligning and perfecting their place in the world.

The majority of the planets move in opposition of you; meaning, this is a time of focusing on, experiencing, mending, healing and strengthening relationships with others and your relationship with self.

The Dragon's Head moves through your 8th Room of intimacy / exchange / debts; directing you to focus on a child / younger person / family member / your inner child.

Pluto is in its final days of moving through your area of children / siblings / family / your inner child; a time of focusing on and assisting someone who experiences life challenges; also, a time of cleansing, healing and strengthening your inner child. LIFE directs you to focus on and find a way of assisting a a child / younger person / family member who experiences life challenges. The key words are, 'find a way' to assist that person (also, your self) in shedding a lower human layer; a time to evolve.

January 2024 Libra

January 2024 Scorpio

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your house / home / foundation / parents / parental responsibilities and duties. Here recently, you may have felt stuck, discontent or unsure of your foundation. For, back in December 2023, Mercury moved into your area of the home, went into retrograde and moved back into your area of communication. Parental duties and / or conversations with parents and / or with elders may have challenged you. You were in a time of stepping back, being silent and listening as THE HIGHER POWER spoke to you through your house, home, a parent or elder. Pluto's transit through your area of the home has taken you through many lessons of perfection. What is perfection??? That is the question you have been living in route to the answer. Perfect your home / foundation and everything else in life effortlessly falls into place.

As the Dragon's Head moves through your area of partnership, your main area of focus is on children, family, younger people and your closest relationships. The focus is FUN!!! The Dragon's Head in Aries directs us to play and have fun; therefore, allowing our inner spirit / inner child to express through. If a partnership or relationship with a younger person or family member has challenged you, perhaps you need to find a way to play.

We step into January as THE SUN IN CAPRICORN highlights your area of communication / creativity / productivity. This is a time of grounding and materializing your thoughts, visions and ideas. This is a time of speaking your thoughts, dreams, visions and ideas into fruition.

As a result of speaking / materializing a thought / vision / idea (which, is your new work / job / business / place in the world), someone hears / sees you and offers support (Jupiter and Uranus in your area of partnership).

A new house / home / foundation presents to you; or, you may attract something new for your house / home. Pluto's transit through your area of home / residence / foundation assists you in building, rebuilding, strengthening and perfecting such.

The Dragon's Tail sweeps through your area of the soul; clearing away people, old friendships and relationships your soul is complete with. You may find yourself connecting and spending more time with children, family and younger people; and, as you do, your inner child / inner spirit awakens and fully expresses throughout your entire being (energy / youth / life); therefore, healing, strengthening and perfecting your health and body.
